GENERAL NOTICES

FULBRIGHT GRANTS

Monday, September 30 is the campus deadline for applications for Fulbright grants for 1992-93. Applicants will be interviewed by the campus selection committee in mid-October. Please see Ellen Myers in the Office of Academic Affairs, 126 Administration Building, if you have questions.

ISRAEL TRIP

The Jerusalem Center for Biblical Studies has announced its December 1991 Seminary Program, "The Ministry of Jesus in Galilee and Jerusalem." This program, sponsored by Educational Opportunities, Inc. (NOT Princeton Theological Seminary), will run from December 15 through 30, 1991, and is available to seminarians at an all-inclusive cost of $861. More information is available in the Academic Affairs office, 126 Administration Building.

NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF CHRISTIANS AND JEWS

The National Conference of Christian and Jews sponsors a program entitled "Seminarians Interacting" involving students from a variety of Christian and Jewish traditions. Five students from PTS will be chosen to 1) participate in a three-day visitation program with two other Northeastern seminaries and 2) gather for a four-day retreat on the issues of understanding one's own faith tradition in light of other religious communities (the first week in April 1992).

If you are interested in applying for the 1991-92 program, submit a brief statement (two or three paragraphs) describing your background and interests in such an inter-religious experience to Professor Dennis Olson via campus mail by October 1, 1991. Preference will be given to middlers.

For further information and a brochure, contact Professor Olson, Dean Carolyn Nicholson, or students Greg Faulkner, Tyrone Ross, or Diane Jamison.

STUDENTS TAKING FIELD EDUCATION

All students undertaking field education must--

1) Have a signed placement description on file in our office.
2) Register for the appropriate section (FE01, FE03, etc).
3) Complete a W-4 form for the Seminary Business Office if receiving a Field Education stipend.

Students who have not completed two units of field education and submitted the appropriate appraisals will not be eligible to graduate. Please contact the Office of Field Education if this applies to you.

CHOIR PLACEMENT

All members of the Seminary community (students and spouses) are welcome to join one of the Seminary choirs. Please contact the chapel office to arrange an appointment with David Weadon, choir director. Rehearsals will be held Tuesday evenings. No previous experience is necessary.

URBAN MINISTRY FELLOWSHIPS AVAILABLE

The Fund for Theological Education is sponsoring year-long internships for students interested in ministry in urban settings. This program is intended to encourage the development of new leadership for the urban mission of the church. Students are selected on the basis of nomination and application and are given the opportunity to work in five urban contexts: Boston, Miami, Minneapolis-St. Paul, San Francisco, and Winnipeg. A stipend is provided and scholarship support is given for the final year of seminary. Additional information on the nomination and application process is available in the Office of Field Education.

Deadline for contacting the office is October 15.

DRIVERS NEEDED

Student Seminary drivers are needed for airport and train passenger pick-up. Good pay and flexible schedule. A good driving record is a must. If interested, please apply in person at the housing office, 203 Templeton Hall.

POSITIONS AVAILABLE IN MEDIA SERVICES

Media services has job openings in the following areas:

- Audio and video taping/editing
- Photography
- Customer service
- Theater arts and music

Students must have an interest in and/or experience in these areas. Work period is 36 weeks, 10 hours per week. Interested students may obtain an application at the media services desk, ground floor of Templeton Hall, during business hours.

FREE CON ED SEMINARS FOR STUDENTS

Students are welcome to attend Seminary-sponsored Continuing Education seminars. Students are asked to pre-register their attendance and to attend all sessions of that seminar. For further information and to register, please contact Doris Platt (497-7990) at Adams House.

TESTAMENT ARTICLES DUE

All articles and letters to be printed in the first issue of Testament (October) should be submitted by Tuesday, October 1 through campus mail. Testament should be distributed by the end of October.

UPCOMING EVENTS

SUPPORT GROUPS TO START UP

Two support/therapy groups will be offered during the fall semester. Leadership will be provided by the Seminary campus pastor, Michael Liviingston; Elizabeth Biles, PTS part-time pastoral psychotherapist; and Catherine Jeffress, a pastoral counselor with the Pastoral Counseling Service of the Northeast Career Counseling Center.

Each group will meet for 1 1/2 hours for eight weeks and is limited to eight participants. A brief description of each group, and date and time of the organizational meetings are as follows:

Forgiveness and the Family
A support/therapy group which will explore family of origin boundaries and issues of forgiveness. Can you forgive? Should you? An organizational meeting will be held Tuesday, October 8 at 6:00pm in the Miller Chapel seminar room. Betsy Biles and Michael Livingston will lead this group.

Walking in Many Worlds: Race, Gender, Class
A support/therapy group to explore how race, gender, and class influence us and our relationships with family, friends and the people with whom we study and work. An organizational meeting will be held Thursday, October 17, at 6:00pm in the the chapel seminar room. Kate Jeffress and Michael Livingston are groups leaders.

For additional information, please contact Michael Livingston at 497-7890. If you are interested in participating in either of these groups but are unable to attend the organizational meeting, please let Michael know.

He was on the National Standard Examination Committee, and was a Wyoming state senator from 1974 to 1978.

Ray will preach in chapel Tuesday, October 8. He will also be available to students and student groups during this week. Individual appointments may be scheduled via a sign-up sheet located in the Alumni/ae and Senior Placement Office in Templeton Hall.

PCUSA MODERATOR TO PREACH

Monday, October 7, 10:00 a.m., Miller Chapel
The Reverend Dr. Herbert D. Valentine, moderator of the 203rd General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (USA), will be on our campus to preach in chapel and meet with students and other interested members of the Seminary community in the Main Lounge during the lunch hour.

ORIENTATION TO CANDIDACY FOR PRESBYTERIANS

Monday, October 7, 6:30 p.m., Stuart #5
Entering Presbyterian students and others interested in the process of ordination in the Presbyterian Church (USA) are requested to meet with the Seminary resource team and Dean Carolyn Nicholson for orientation to the procedures leading to ordination in the Presbyterian Church (USA). Topics to be discussed include the role of the Seminary, the support services available here, and tips on working with a presbytery's Committee on Preparation for Ministry. Students may also raise other concerns.

SUPPORT GROUP ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING

Tuesday, October 8, 6:00 p.m., Chapel Seminar Room
Forgiveness and the Family
A support/therapy group which will explore family of origin boundaries and issues of forgiveness. Can you forgive? Should you?

Betsy Biles and Michael Livingston will lead this group. For additional information, please contact Michael Livingston at 497-7890. If you are interested in participating in the group, but are unable to attend the organizational meeting, please let Michael know.

KOINONIA ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING

Wednesday, October 9, 12:15 p.m., Main Lounge
All Ph.D. students are urged to attend the first meeting of Koinonia. In addition to our discussion of doctoral life on campus, we will be assigning representatives to departmental and academic committees. Refreshments will be available at 12:15; the meeting will begin at 12:30. Feel free to bring your lunch.

CLINICAL PASTORAL EDUCATION NIGHT

Thursday, October 10, 7:30 p.m., Auditorium
This meeting is a first step toward a basic (beginning) unit of clinical pastoral education for the summer of 1992. Christie C. Neuger, coordinator, chaplain supervisors from nearby centers, and students who worked in CPE settings last summer, will be available for questions.

GERMAN TABLE

Friday, October 11, Noon, Main Dining Hall
Sprechen sie deutsch? Bitte, kommen sie zum deutschen stammtisch. All levels of German speakers are invited to join us every Friday, noon to 1:00 p.m., in the main dining hall for very informal German conversation. Look for us along the left wall under the balcony. For more information, call Lynn Barger Elliott at 683-9379 or David Widmer at 491-6985.

GENERAL NOTICES

SENIOR AND MIDDLER PRIZES

Two Robert L. Maitland Prizes of $300 each are awarded annually, one for the best exegesis of a passage of the New Testament and one for the best essay on an assigned subject in English Bible. The assigned exegesis passage for 1991-92 is "The Word became flesh": John 1:1-14. The English Bible topic is: The Significance of Women as Witnesses to the Resurrection.

The John Finley McLaren Prize in Biblical Theology ($300) is awarded annually for the best essay on an assigned subject in biblical theology. The subject for 1991-92 is: Human Suffering as Divine Judgment.

Seniors or middlers may submit entries, which must be signed with an assumed name, accompanied by a sealed envelope containing the name of the author, and presented at the office of the Dean of Academic Affairs on or before May 1, 1992.

DORM STUDENTS

Please secure all bicycles in the bike racks at each dorm. Bicycles are not to be secured to stairs, railings, posts, etc., as this interferes with custodial, maintenance, and grounds work. Thank you for your cooperation.

LOCKERS AVAILABLE

Commuters, Tennant campus residents, and CRW residents have lockers available to them in the basement of Stuart Hall. Please stop by the housing office, room 203 in Templeton Hall, if you would like one.

CRW POOL HOURS

Effective September 3, the hours for the swimming pool are:

Monday, Wednesday, Friday	3:00-5:00 p.m.
Tuesday, Thursday	7:00-9:00 p.m.
Saturday	Noon-5:00 p.m.
Sunday	pool closed

STUDENT MEDIA PRODUCTION

A brief media orientation meeting for students interested in production opportunities will be held in the Main Lounge on Thursday, October 17, at 12:45 p.m. Bring your lunch and find out more about--

- free media services available to all students doing approved media projects as part of their coursework
- the first annual student media competition, with cash awards for the best course-related student media projects

- production opportunities with the campus television network, channel 12

For more information, contact Joicy Becker, media production coordinator, at 497-7959, or stop by the media services desk in Templeton Hall.

FROM SENIOR PLACEMENT

The Reverends Clark Kandel and Bruce Irwin of the East Ohio conference of the United Methodist Church will be on campus Wednesday, October 23 to interview those interested in opportunities in their district. A sign-up sheet is available in the placement office.

UPCOMING EVENTS

SUPPORT GROUPS TO START UP

Two support/therapy groups will be offered during the fall semester. Leadership will be provided by the Seminary campus pastor, Michael Livingston; Elizabeth Biles, PTS part-time pastoral psychotherapist; and Catherine Jeffress, a pastoral counselor with the Pastoral Counseling Service of the Northeast Career Counseling Center.

Each group will meet for 1 1/2 hours for eight weeks and is limited to eight participants.

Walking in Many Worlds: Race, Gender, Class
A support/therapy group to explore how race, gender, and class influence us and our relationships with family, friends and the people with whom we study and work. An organizational meeting will be held Thursday, October 17, at 6:00pm in the chapel seminar room. Kate Jeffress and Michael Livingston are groups leaders.

Forgiveness and the Family
See description and meeting information in This Week section.

For additional information, please contact Michael Livingston at 497-7890. If you are interested in participating, but are unable to attend the organizational meetings, please let Michael know.

PRINCETON SEMINAR WEEKEND

Thursday, October 17, through Sunday, October 20

LECTURE ON APPALACHIAN MINISTRIES

Wednesday, October 23, 12:30 p.m., Main Lounge
The Reverend Dr. Mary Lee Daugherty, executive director of the Appalachian Ministries Educational Resource Center, will present an address, "Ministry: A Pattern of Love," to all interested members of the Seminary community. In the morning, Dr. Daugherty will preach on "America's Emerging Third World" in chapel.

A thirteen-piece biblical quilt exhibit from the Appalachian Museum in Berea, KY, is on display in the Campus Center.

MDAS DEMONSTRATION FOR FACULTY AND PH.D. CANDIDATES

Wednesday, October 23, 2:00-5:00 p.m., Speer Library Board Room
A reminder to faculty and Ph.D. candidates of the MDAS demonstration to be held as noted above.
The Multiple Database Access System permits the incorporation of external databases (e.g., religion indexes) into the on-line system so they may be searched from the same local and telephone-connected terminals that serve the Seminary's regular catalogue.

This will be an ongoing demonstration from 2:00 until 5:00pm. You may come by anytime during those hours.

SECOND-CAREER ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING

Thursday, October 24, 12:30 p.m., Main Lounge
If you worked between college and seminary, you are welcome to attend the organizational meeting of the Second-Career Fellowship. Bring your lunch as well as your thoughts and ideas.

JOB FAIR

Thursday, October 24, 7:00-9:00 p.m., Mackay Auditorium
This open-ended forum will give the Seminary community (especially seniors) an opportunity to meet with people who represent a variety of ministries such as solo pastorates, associate pastorates, campus ministries, hospital chaplaincies, and other specialized ministries.

For further information, contact Sue Marsili in the placement office (497-7781).

CRW FRIDAY FELLOWSHIP TO BEGIN

Friday, October 25, 7:00 p.m., CN Center
The CRW complex is starting a Friday night fellowship. All are welcome to attend. From 7:00-7:45 p.m. there is singing and prayer and from 7:45-9:00 p.m. there is an opportunity to meet in small groups. Babysitting will be provided for those who wish to stay for the group meetings.

GENERAL NOTICES

THIS WEEK'S EVENTS

BRUCE KUHN--A ONE-MAN SHOW ON THE GOSPEL OF LUKE

Tuesday, November 5 (7:00 p.m.), Mackay Auditorium
Bruce Kuhn is a nationally-known and critically acclaimed actor. He was a lead actor in the Broadway production of "Les Miserables" for over three years.

His Christian commitment has led him to develop "Luke," a theatrical interpretation of the gospel of Luke. Kuhn's one-man show, directed to all age groups and audiences, has received phenomenal reviews. Join us for this very special event sponsored by the Theological Students Fellowship.

KOINONIA P.O.O.F. DISCUSSION AND DINNER

Thursday, November 7 (5:30 p.m.), Private Dining Room
The first presentation of the year will feature Professors Freda Gardner, Peter Paris, and Jane Dempsey Douglass speaking on "Institutional Dynamics of Marginalization and Centration: How Academic Institutions Keep Marginal Voices in the Margins." They will address some of the possible reasons why it is difficult for many institutions to attract and retain a sufficiently diverse faculty and administration.

The presentation will follow a buffet dinner in the Private Dining Room. The last day to purchase tickets is November 5. Tickets may be purchased during lunch, or call Scott Johnson (243-9483) or Robert Martin (466-4373).

GENERAL NOTICES

GENERAL NOTICES

TSADs FOR THE 1992 GENERAL ASSEMBLY

The 1992 General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (USA) will be held in Milwaukee June 2 through 10. Each Presbyterian theological institution is invited to nominate students to serve as theological student advisory delegates (TSAD). A TSAD must be either an inquirer or a candidate under care of a presbytery and must have at least one year of resident study remaining.

Application forms are available in the Office of Student Affairs and must be submitted by Wednesday, December 4.

For additional information, call Dean Nicholson at 497-7880.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH EDUCATORS SCHOLARSHIPS

The Association of Presbyterian Church Educators (APCE) is offering scholarships to the first one hundred students who attend its February 12-15 national conference in Cincinnati, Ohio. In addition, APCE will award up to $400 as the E. Valaria Murphy Scholarship which is designed to encourage ethnic minority participation at the annual conference.

This is an excellent opportunity for Presbyterian or RCA students who are interested in educational ministry. For a conference brochure and scholarship application, call the CE office at 497-7910 or stop by the office.

PC(USA) MINUTES NOW AVAILABLE

The Minutes of the 1991 General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (USA) are now available at the TBA to all Presbyterian students at no charge. The copies have been supplied by the PCUSA in Louisville and will be available until the end of 1991.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS' CHRISTMAS

International students are invited to spend Christmas at the beautiful Sloan House in Stony Point, NY. Transportation, as well as room and board, will be provided from Monday, December 23 through Thursday, December 26. Only a limited number of spaces are available.

For further information, please contact Dean Nicholson's office (497-7880) or Peter Thambidurai (921-0085).

DORM RESIDENTS

Your cooperation in maintaining a healthy and clean dormitory is appreciated by all. Please return all food trays and dishes to the cafeteria as soon as possible. Do not allow trays/dishes to accumulate in rooms or hallways! This can create a health hazard by attracting ants and roaches.

HUMAN SEXUALITY COURSE

The University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey will again conduct a course on human sexuality. Interested students should contact Mrs. Dorothy Hullfish in room F1 of the Mackay Campus Center, or call 497-7980 for further information.

Date -- January 6-10, 1992
Cost -- $125 due on or before November 29

NEW TRAFFIC SIGNS POSTED ON CAMPUS

New STOP and speed limit signs have been placed around the campus.

A stop sign has been installed between Hodge Hall and the campus center at the end of the Templeton Hall sidewalk. This is a "blind" area which has caused hazards for pedestrians.

Speed limit signs of 5 and 15mph have been placed at various points around campus. Please observe these new speed limits.

LECTURE ON ECUMENICAL DIALOGUE

Monday, December 2 (1:30 p.m.), Alexander Oratory
Dr. Harding Meyer, professor and director of the Institute for Ecumenical Research of the Lutheran World Federation in Strasbourg, France, will give a lecture entitled "'Fundamental Consensus': A Governing Concept in Ecumenical Dialogue."

Dr. Meyer is one of the foremost observers and analysts of ecumenical developments in Europe and around the world. He has been involved in dialogues and consultations which led to such ecumenical documents as the "Leuenberg Concord" (1975), "Lutheran Churches in Europe and Beyond," and The World Council of Churches' Lima Statement on "Baptism, Eucharist, and Ministry" (1982).

This semester he is a visiting professor at the General Theological Seminary in New York City.

PH.D. CANDIDATES

Monday, December 2 (7:00 p.m.), Stuart #4
Professors Freda Gardner and Richard Osmer will speak on "How to Write and Give a 'Good' Lecture." Refreshments will be provided.

The December 11 meeting has been changed to December 18. Please note this on your calendars.

WOMEN'S CENTER VIGIL

Tuesday, December 3 (9:00 a.m.), Alex Oratory
A vigil will be held to remember and stand in solidarity with women who have been made victims of violence. The vigil will recognize the worldwide problems of violence against women.

All those who wish to support their sisters in Christ are encouraged to attend.

For further information, contact Patty Fox at 422-2183.

TSF NOONTIME FORUM

Tuesday, December 3 (12:40 p.m.), Main Lounge
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit? Or is it Creator, Redeemer, Sustainer? Maybe both? Or neither?

Dr. Daniel Hardy, director of the Center for Theological Inquiry will address the topic of Trinitarian language. Dr. Hardy will be a visiting lecturer in theology this spring semester.

TSF FORUM

Thursday, December 5 (12:40 and 7:00 p.m.), Main Lounge
Dr. Jerry Kirk will present a talk on his work as chair of President's Commission Against Pornography. In the evening Dr. Kirk and his wife, Patty, will host a discussion concerning the pastorate and family life.

Dr. Kirk will also preach Thursday morning at chapel.

CLGC MEETING

Thursday, December 5 (6:30 p.m.), Alex Oratory
The discussion will focus on the significance of the Sodom and Gomorrah passage (Genesis 18 and 19) in shaping the church's view of homosexuality. Participants are encouraged to contact Kevin Porter (SBN 680) for copies of a brief background article prior to the meeting.

WOMEN'S CENTER MUG SALE

Thursday, December 5 and Friday, December 6
Just in time for Christmas gift giving, the Women's Center will be selling their ceramic mugs outside the dining hall at lunchtime.

PRINCETON SEMINAR

Thursday, December 5 through Sunday, December 8
The Office of Vocations and Admissions will host men and women from across the United States who are considering ministry and theological education. These visitors will be invited to classes, chapel, and the dining hall, as well as to community events. Please extend a cordial welcome when you meet them on campus.

HUMAN RIGHTS VIGIL

Friday, December 6 (8:00 p.m.), Miller Chapel
Chief Roy Crazy Horse from the Rankokas Reservation and Leni-Lenape tribe will be speaking.

Join in the lifting up of human rights. This is the annual vigil to bring together our faith and concerns for human rights together.

FRIDAY NIGHT LIVE!

Friday, December 6 (9:00 p.m.), Main Lounge

If you would like to be a part of the entertainment, contact Beth Stallinga at 921-6196.

NEW YORK CITY DAY TRIP

Sunday, December 8
The International Students' Association and the Women's Center are sponsoring the first annual day trip to New York City. Members of the Seminary community are invited to enjoy a day in the Big Apple. The bus will leave the campus at 10:00 a.m. and return at 10:00 p.m. Activities will include the annual Messiah Sing at Riverside Church, as well as a tour of the city. Seats are limited.

For further information, please contact Susy Nakasian at 924-2732.

GENERAL NOTICES

FIELD EDUCATION OPPORTUNITY

Internship
Highland Park Presbyterian Church, Dallas, TX
The Reverend Harry Hassall
Wednesday, December 4 through Friday, December 6
Please check with the field education office for further information and to sign up for an interview.

DORM RESIDENTS

Overloading a room's outlets will trip the circuit breakers. Outlets can be used for TVs, VCRs, stereos, computers, and refrigerators without any problems. Prohibited appliances such as hot plates, microwaves, toaster ovens, or electric heaters will overload the circuits.

Should circuit breakers trip, only the ceiling light will remain on. Constant overloading will destroy the breakers.

CANDLELIGHT SERVICE VIDEO TAPE

A new videotape capturing the ethos and feeling of the annual Christmas candlelight service in Miller Chapel has been produced by the Seminary. Entitled Carols of Many Nations, it features David Weadon, Brenda Day, Kathleen Bride, and members of the Seminary Singers performing traditional Christmas music from around the world. The fifty-eight minute tape costs $8.95 plus tax, and it is available from the TBA or the media services center. For an additional sixty-five cents, media services personnel will provide packaging and postage.

TESTAMENT ARTICLES

The next issue of Testament will be published in January. Deadline for all submissions for this issue is Monday, December 2.

BLOOD DRIVE THANK YOU

Thanks to all who donated at the fall blood drive. Eighty-one pints were given, sixteen more than last fall. The spring blood drive will take place on April 15, 1992. Mark your calendars.

Those who would still like to donate, can call the Princeton Red Cross (924-2404) and have the donation credited to the Seminary.

RESIDENTS

Fire doors at the stairwells of each building are being propped open. Do not place any blocks or wedges to prop these doors open; they must remain shut for your safety.

STUDENT NEEDED IN BUSINESS OFFICE

The Business Office needs a student for three to four hours a week to perform general office duties. Must be able to type and use PC.

Interested students should contact Bob Marut, bursar, in the business office.

INDIA SUMMER PROGRAM

Students interested in the India Summer Program should submit their names, campus addresses, and phone numbers, plus a paragraph on the reasons for interest, to Professor Charles Ryerson via the campus mail.

Details of the program can be found on page eighty-four of the Seminary catalogue. Middlers are preferred, but juniors may also apply. Please note that these applications represent only an expression of interest, not a definite commitment.

Applications must be submitted before the Christmas break. Those applications received after Christmas break will not be considered.

ORIENTATION PHOTOS ARE IN

Students who ordered and paid for the picture taken on the Miller Chapel steps during orientation may now pick them up in the vocations and admissions office (308 Templeton).

CRW RESIDENTS

The Seminary will be hiring a security guard to patrol the complex between midnight and 8:00 a.m.
